

Beverly Ann Walters, 78

Beverly Ann "Bev" Walters, age 78 of Duxbury, died peacefully on Sunday, Dec. 11 at home, surrounded by family. She was the wife of Bertram L. Walters, and mother to John Walters of New Bedford, MA, Richard Walters of Apex, NC and Thomas Walters of Nashua, NH. She was also the loving sister of Florence West, the late Richard Meehan, and Dennis Meehan. She was the grandmother of Brian Walters, Evelyn Walters and Mary Grace Walters.

Born in 1938 in North Bergen, NJ, Bev was the daughter of Joseph and Emily Meehan (Miliano), and she spent most of her early life in New Jersey before moving to Greenville, SC; Knoxville, TN and Bridgewater, NJ, ultimately settling in Duxbury in 1970. She was active in residential real estate for over three decades, including owning and operating a successful real estate firm for many years in Duxbury. Bev also served as president of the Plymouth County Board of Realtors, and had several other leadership roles with the organization over many years. Bev was very active in her volunteer activities, especially with the Alzheimer's support group at the Duxbury Senior Center for many years as well.

Memorial gifts may be made to The Friends of The Council on Aging, c/o Duxbury Senior Center, 10 Mayflower St., Duxbury, MA 02332.

A celebration service is being planned for March 12, 2017.
